An international team of high calibre lawyers ably serves clients from the United Kingdom, North America, Europe, the United Arab Emirates and several other Arab countries. Each member of our team of professionals and qualified administrative staff is fully committed to providing our clients with accurate, thorough and cost effective advice.

We pride ourselves on our complete knowledge of the laws and regulations applicable to our home jurisdiction and the commercial community abroad. Throughout the Middle East we regularly confer with government ministries and departments. The firm assists multinational companies and family owned businesses in establishing operations in the Region independently, or in association with local partners. Our local clients, many of whom have business interests outside the United Arab Emirates, and the international organisations who we work with, rely on our global perspective. We subscribe to the belief that the world of opportunity does not recognise national boundaries.
